Non-Financial Service Notice

The materials, information, and services provided on the Platform (accessible via the Internet at alephium.stream) do not constitute personalized investment advice, an offer, or any other form of financial service. The Platform and its developers merely provide a technological interface for Users to interact with a decentralized protocol. The Platform is not a bank or any other financial institution, nor does it offer services subject to licensing (such as accepting deposits, managing investments on behalf of clients, brokerage services, or investment advisory services). Nothing on the website or within the application should be construed as an invitation to transact in securities, derivatives, or any other financial instruments.

High-Risk Warning

Transactions involving cryptocurrencies and participation in decentralized financial protocols carry significant risk. Cryptocurrency prices are highly volatile and may decline sharply—even to zero. Participation in streaming or other token operations does not guarantee any income and may result in a loss of the invested funds. The Platform does not guarantee that Users will achieve any profit or favorable outcome. All information provided on the Platform (including product descriptions, reviews, articles, or support responses) is for general informational purposes only and is not intended to replace professional advice. The decision to manage your crypto-assets is solely your responsibility. Before engaging in any transactions, it is strongly recommended that you carefully evaluate the associated risks and, if necessary, consult an independent financial advisor or attorney with expertise in blockchain and cryptocurrencies.

Disclaimer of Liability

By using the Service, the User acknowledges and agrees that neither the Platform nor its developers, employees, or agents shall be liable for any direct or indirect losses, damages, or forfeited gains arising from the use of the Platform or any information provided therein. The Platform is not responsible for errors, interruptions, or vulnerabilities in the protocol and blockchain networks, nor for any wrongful actions by third parties, or for any events beyond the reasonable control of the Platform.

This Disclaimer supplements the provisions of our Terms of Service and Risk Notice without replacing them. Users must ensure that their use of the Platform and protocol complies with the laws of their jurisdiction. All actions performed on the Platform are undertaken at the User's sole risk.
